In the New Testament:

Matthew 3:11 (Baptize with Holy Ghost and fire)

Acts 2:3-4 (Tongues like as of fire)

The Spirit is like a fire in at least three ways: He brings God’s presence, God’s passion, and God’s purity.

1. Presence: In the Old Testament, his fiery pillar (presence) provided light and guidance to the children of Israel. In the New Testament, God guides and comforts

His children with the Holy Spirit.

2. Passion: After the two traveling disciples talked with the resurrected Jesus, they described their hearts as “burning within us”.

3. Purity: The Holy Spirit produces the purity of God in our lives. God’s purpose is to purify us, and the Spirit is the agent of our sanctification. As the silversmith uses fire to purge the dross from the precious metal, so God uses the Spirit to remove our sin from us. His fire cleanses and refines.

Negatives:

- Symbolizes Trials in Life
- Symbolizes Suffering
- Symbolizes Pain
- Symbolizes Devastation

Positives:

- Symbolizes God’s Spirit
- Symbolizes God’s Presence
- Symbolizes God’s Passion
- Symbolizes God’s Purity

 Thinking about how your world ain't right
And you wonder if things will ever get better
And you're asking, why is it always raining on you
When all you want is just a little good news
 Instead of standing there stuck out in the weather
 Oh, don't hang your head

 Even if it's hard to see Him
 I promise you that He still cares
When the waves are taking you under

“Flood” Expressions In The Bible

- ▶ “Thou carriest them away as with a flood...” Psalms 90:5
- ▶ “When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him”. Isaiah 59:19
- ▶ “And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the son of man be”. Matthew 24:39
- ▶ “He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on the rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock”. Luke 6:48

Negatives?

Positives?

There is debate as to whether the flood in Isaiah 59 is referring to the enemy or the Spirit of the Lord making his entrance into the situation. The placement of the comma seems to be the issue of understanding. Some commentators have read the verse as:

“When the enemy shall come in, like a flood the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him”. It really makes no difference how you read it...the conclusion is the same: God’s power is greater than the enemy!

Is the Metaphor “Flood” Negative or Positive?

Negative:

Symbolizes Trials of Life
Symbolizes Overwhelming Tribulations

Positive:

“River” Expressions In The Bible

- ▶ “Thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures”. Psalms 36:8
- ▶ “...Then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea”. Isaiah 48:18
- ▶ “For thus saith the Lord, Behold I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the gentiles like a flowing stream”. Isaiah 66:12
- ▶ “He that believeth on me as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified)”. - John 7:38-39

Negatives?

Positives?

In John 7 Jesus used “rivers of living water” to symbolize his Spirit that was to be poured out on the Day of Pentecost. God gives us his Spirit to fill us; and then flow out of us! Notice it says “Rivers”. Not a trickle. Not a drop. But Rivers! He intends for his Spirit to be a constant source flowing out of our lives. Others should constantly see the result of the Spirit “flowing” in and out of our life.

In Biblical times, the “Belly” was often referred to in much the same way we refer to our “heart” in modern times; the center of our being.

Is the Metaphor “River” Negative or Positive?

Negative:

Symbolizes Trials of Life
Symbolizes life out of control

Positive:

Symbolizes the Spirit of God
Symbolizes Peace
