

Lesson 06- Titles and Descriptors of God

“And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide; as it is said [to] this day, “In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

Jehovah-Jireh means "The Lord will provide". God revealed Himself as the Lord who would provide way back in the first book of the Bible, Genesis. Abraham was about ready to sacrifice his son Isaac on an alter at the top of a desolate mountain in the land of Moriah. We know it was desolate because when they reached the base of the mountain, Abraham took with him the wood, fire, and knife that would be needed to complete the sacrifice. He must have known none of those things would be found at the top. He also took Isaac who was to BE the sacrifice and left two servants behind.

When they were near the top, Isaac said, "Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering? And Abraham said, 'God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering my son.'" Just as Abraham was about to kill his son, the Lord stopped him and showed him a ram caught in a thicket and told him to use that instead. God had placed that ram nearby in advance, knowing He was going to need a substitute for Isaac.

After the sacrifice was complete, Abraham named the place "The Lord Will Provide" which in Hebrew is Jehovahjireh. "Jireh" translates into "Provide" which is a word with wonderful Latin roots. "Pro" means "before" and "video" means "to see". So it means to see in advance or before the need is known. God is preparing an answer before we know that it is a need.

While it is comforting to know that God provides our every need in life ahead of time...there is a much deeper meaning to this title Jehovah Jireh – God Provides. Just as Abraham did not withhold his only son Isaac from God...God did not withhold his only begotten son from us!

Just as God provided a ram to take Isaacs place as a sacrifice...God robed himself in flesh to take our place as a sacrifice on Calvary! God provided the ultimate sacrifice needed to take away our sins! God provided salvation to all of us!

Jehovah Rapha – Our Healer

“And he said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee”. Exodus 15:26

Exodus 15:22-26

God, our heavenly Father, is Jehovah-rapha, “The Lord who heals you.”

After God miraculously provided for the Israelites by parting the Red Sea, they continued on their journey. After three days without finding water, they came to Marah and were delighted to see water. Their delight soon turned to grumbling, however, when they discovered that the water was bitter.

As Moses prayed, God instructed him to cast a tree into the water, and the water became sweet. God then spoke the words in today's scripture verse. He told them that he is Jehovah-rapha, the Lord who heals you.

The Old Testament recounts many instances of God providing healing and restoration. And, of course, the New Testament is filled with accounts of people being healed by Jesus, and later through the apostles. What Jehovah did at Marah, what Jesus did throughout the New Testament, he will do today for those who trust and obey him.

Consider this:

We all need healing at various times in our lives; physical, emotional, and spiritual healing. If you need healing in any area of your life today, do what God asked of the Israelites and listen carefully to God... read the Bible, communicate with him in prayer and seek godly counsel. Commit to pleasing the Lord in all that you do, doing things his way. God is Jehovah-rapha, the Lord who heals you.

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed”. Isaiah 53:5

“If my people which are called by my name shall, humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land”. 2 Chron. 7:14

-Precept Austin Commentary-

“...and the name of the city from that shall be, The Lord is there”.
Ezekiel 48:35

Shammah is derived from the Hebrew word “Sham”, which can be translated as “there.” Jehovah Shammah is a symbolic name for the earthly Jerusalem. The name indicates that God has not abandoned Jerusalem, leaving it in ruins, but that there will be a restoration...a new Temple with a new name.

God’s presence departs from the Temple

At the height of the idolatry of God’s chosen people, God withdrew His presence not only from the temple, but even from the city of Jerusalem. Such was his anger and displeasure over the repeated rebellion of the Israelites that He said, in effect, “I’ve had it. I’m out of here.”

When God’s presence departed the temple, it signaled to the Israelites and all who dwelt around them that God had removed His hand of protection from them. They would ultimately be scattered to the four corners of the earth and taken captive by surrounding nations.

God did not completely wash His hands of the Israelites, however. His love and mercy were always with them, continually drawing them back to Himself.

The people to whom Ezekiel prophesied were captives in a foreign land. They had heard reports that their country had been obliterated, that the temple had been destroyed. But suddenly they hear a message from God, telling them not only that the temple would be rebuilt, that the Levites would be in place, that the priests would be in attendance, that all twelve tribes would be reunited and given a portion of the land—but, above all, that the city would be named Jehovah-Shammah, or “the Lord is there.”

Did the presence of God ever return to the Temple in the New Testament?

Through the prophet Ezekiel, God promised a restoration of the nation and a return of His presence to Jerusalem. In that day the city would be called Jehovah-shammah. That very prophecy came true when the exiles returned to Jerusalem and rebuilt the walls. God’s presence returned to the temple in the form of a tiny baby brought to the temple to be offered back to God by his parents, Joseph and Mary.

At the age of 12, Jesus stayed in the Temple after Mary and Joseph left to return home.

“Then, after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.” – Luke 2:46

Jehovah Shammah’s Presence will not only dwell in the Temple of the Jews...but in the Temple of you and I.

“What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own” – 1 Corinth. 6:19

“But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his”. Romans 8:9

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his spirit that dwelleth in you”. – Romans 8:11

“And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God”. Revelation 21:3

-Precept Austin Commentary-

And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-LORD-Is-My-Banner

Exodus 17:10-17

"And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand."

So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

And so it was, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

But Moses' hands [became] heavy; so they took a stone and put [it] under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write this [for] a memorial in the book and recount [it] in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven."

And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-LORD-Is-My-Banner; for he said, "Because the LORD has sworn: the LORD [will have] war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Moses Hand

Up = Israel prevailed

Down = Amalek prevailed

Even today a banner is a standard that bears the colors by which a military unit is identified and behind which troops rally. The "standard-bearer" carries the colors and marching bands are often led by people carrying a banner that identifies the band, and after which the musicians fall in line. So when Moses names the altar Jehovah Nissi, The Lord is my Banner, he proclaims as a memorial - "I rally behind Jehovah. It is He to Whom I look. It is He Whom I will follow."

"Thou hast given a banner to those who fear Thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. That Thy beloved may be delivered, Save with Thy right hand, and answer us!" – Psalms 60:4-5

"We will sing for joy over your victory, And in the name of our God we will set up our banners. May the LORD fulfill all your petitions". – Psalms 20:5

-Precept Austin Commentary-

The first time we see God as Jehovah Shalom, we see it in the circumstance of a man in great fear, his peace disturbed because of the very real circumstances prevailing in Israel at that time.

At last the people of Israel came into the promised land, but they did evil in the sight of the Lord in worshipping Baal; and the Lord left them to suffer for their sins. Once the Midianites, living near the desert on the east of Israel, came against the tribes. The two tribes that suffered the hardest fate were Ephraim, and the part of Manasseh on the west of Jordan. For seven years the Midianites swept over their land every year, just at the time of harvest, and carried away all the crops of grain, until the Israelites had no food for themselves, and none for their sheep and cattle. The Midianites brought also their own flocks and camels without number, which ate all the grass of the field.

The people of Israel were driven away from their villages and their farms, and were compelled to hide in the caves of the mountains. And if any Israelite could raise any grain, he buried it in pits covered with earth, or in empty winepresses, where the Midianites could not find it.

God Calls Gideon

One day, a man named Gideon was threshing out wheat in a hidden place, when he saw an angel sitting-under an oak-tree. The angel said to him: "You are a mighty man of valor, Gideon, and the Lord is with you. Go out boldly, and save your people from the power of the Midianites." Gideon answered the angel:

"O, Lord, how can I save Israel? Mine is a poor family in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."

And the Lord said to him: "Surely I will be With you, and I will help you drive out the Midianites."

Gideon felt that it was the Lord who was talking with him, in the form of an angel. He brought an offering, and laid it on a rock before the angel. Then the angel touched the offering with his staff. At once, a fire leaped up and burned the offering; and then the angel vanished from his sight. Gideon was afraid when he saw this; but the Lord said to him: "Peace be unto you, Gideon, do not fear, for I am with you."

On the spot where the Lord appeared to Gideon, under an oak tree, near the village of Ophrah, in the tribe-land of Manasseh, Gideon built an altar and called it by a name which means: "The Lord is peace."

- Gideon Fleeced God
- Gideon's small army of 300 were victorious over the 135,000 enemy Midianites.

When most of us think about about peace, we think about "perfect" circumstances and nothing disturbing our "peace". This is an accurate definition of "peace" only as long as the circumstances are conducive to peace. It is the only "peace" the world knows. But real peace doesn't come from without. Real peace comes from Jehovah Shalom and is an inner work of grace. If you truly know God as Jehovah Shalom, you can still experience His perfect peace in the midst of "troubled waters".

"The weight of the world on your shoulders"

"For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." – Isaiah 9:6

Isn't it when we're experiencing adverse circumstances and we think that we have to fix the problem? We take the whole weight of the troubling circumstances onto our shoulders and we try to bear it alone, in our strength, our self-sufficiency. In Isaiah 9:6, God says to Israel in the midst of her adversity -- your peace is not found in trying to fix your circumstances. Your peace is found in Jehovah Shalom. Not only will the government rest on His shoulders but your burdens and troubles you are experiencing will rest on Him.

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee”. – Isaiah 26:3

“Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them”. Psalms 119:165

“And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever”. – Isaiah 32:17

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men”. – Luke 2:14

Hierarchy- Kings Ascend to the throne through royal blood lines

Jesse had at least eight sons (II Samuel 16:10-11), the youngest of which was David. God chose the line of this young shepherd boy to reign over Israel and ultimately to produce the King of kings:

"Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "That I will raise to David a Branch of righteousness; A King shall reign and prosper, And execute judgment and righteousness in the earth." Jeremiah 23:5-6

Matthew 1:1-17

The book of Matthew opens with a stylized genealogy of Jesus of Nazareth. Matthew presents the list in three parts—1. from Abraham to David, 2. from David to the captivity in Babylon, 3. and from the captivity to Christ—each with fourteen generations. The genealogy is perfectly correct in every way.

Except one.

What Matthew records is not Christ's biological ancestry but His legal one. Verse 16 gives the proof: "And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ." It is Joseph's family tree! Remember, Christ was not begotten of Joseph but of the Holy Spirit. Legally, Christ could trace his ancestry back to David through his "father" Joseph, though He had not one drop of Joseph's blood! We must remember a major purpose of Matthew's gospel: to present Jesus of Nazareth as the Messiah to the Jews. The Jews were, and still are, very particular about genealogies. Anyone claiming to be the Messiah would have to present a bona fide, airtight ancestry back to David if he were to be taken seriously. Matthew does just that in introducing Jesus in the first verses of his book.

Matthew emphasizes, right from the beginning, Jesus' title Christ—the Greek rendering of the Hebrew title Messiah—meaning anointed, in the sense of an anointed king. Jesus is presented as the long-awaited Messiah, who was expected to be a descendant of King David

Thus, Jesus has a legal claim to the throne of David through His stepfather, Joseph. Such a thing was legally acceptable under Jewish law.

The angel Gabriel told Mary that Jesus ...“He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David.”

“For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end, Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, To order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.” Isaiah 9:6-7

The first time Jesus came to the earth he came as a humble servant, he suffered crucifixion to pay for our sins, was buried and rose on the third day. He ascended back into heaven and promised to return again.

In contrast, the Second Coming of Christ will be in triumph and glory. This time he will not only come as King of the Jews...but he will come as "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS." (Rev. 19:16)

You can't have a FATHER until you are BORN.

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God". John 1:12-13

"Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

"That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

"Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'

"The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

-John 3:4-8-

What happens when a baby is born? What do all doctors want to hear from that baby? A cry!

When you are born of the spirit...God, the great physician wants to hear that audible tongue...the Holy Ghost.

“Then Peter said unto them, repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost”. – Acts 2:38

The Holy Ghost is a GIFT from your heavenly Father!

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.”

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:”

“And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together”.

- Romans 8:15-17-

Heirs to what? Because we are God’s children...we are heirs to inherit eternal life! To live with our heavenly Father forever!

“Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God”. 1 John 3:1

“God said to Moses “I AM WHO I AM” and He said, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you. God also said to Moses, “Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh, the God of your ancestors- the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob has sent me to you. This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations”“.

Exodus 3:14-15

Yahweh is the name of God which (by Jewish tradition) was too holy to voice, is actually spelled “YHWH” without vowels.

YHWH is referred to as the Tetragrammaton (which simply means “the four letters”). YHWH comes from the Hebrew letters: Yud, Hay, Vav, Hay.

While YHWH is first used in Genesis 2, God did not reveal Himself as YHWH until Exodus 3. The modern spelling as “Yahweh” includes vowels to assist in pronunciation.

Many pronounce YHWH as “Yahweh” or “Jehovah.” We no longer know for certain the exact pronunciation. During the third century A.D., the Jewish people stopped saying this name in fear of contravening the commandment “Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain” (Exd 20:7). As a result of this, Adonai is occasionally a substitute for YHWH.

The following compound names which start with “YHWH” have been shown using “Jehovah.” This is due to the common usage of “Jehovah” in the English of these compound names in the early English translations of the Bible (e.g., the Geneva Bible, the King James Version, etc.).

Jesus = I AM

Jesus clearly declares...

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "Who is and Who was and Who is to come, the Almighty". –Revelation 1:8

"And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst". – John 6:35

"Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life". – John 8:12
"As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world". – John 9:5

"I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture". – John 10:9

"I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep". – John 10:11

"I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine". – John 10:14

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me". – John 14:6

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live". –John 11:25

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing". – John 15:5

"I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if you believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins". - John 8:24

Inherent in the idea behind the name I Am is the sense that God is "the becoming one"; God becomes whatever is lacking in our time of need. The name I Am invites us to fill in the blank to meet our need - when we are in darkness, Jesus says I am the light; when we are hungry, He says I am the bread of life, when we are defenseless, He says I am the Good Shepherd. God is the becoming one, becoming what we need.

“To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? Saith the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth”. - Isaiah 40:25-26
